Give the gift of hope

How would you like to be remembered?

A gift to the Patricia Giles Centre for Non-Violence in your Will ensures a lasting legacy in line with your community values. Your gift is a stand against Family and Domestic Violence.

Known as a bequest, a small or large donation can be the difference in saving a life. Leaving a gift in your Will demonstrates your willingness to support our mission to build and empower families and communities to live free from gender-based violence.

By drawing on over 30 years experience in the provision of an expert range of services for women and children in Western Australia escaping and affected by family and domestic violence, your gift will contribute to one of our existing crisis care services and/or enable us to focus on innovative prevention and awareness initiatives.

With a 700% increase in reported family assaults to WA Police during the past two decades there has never been a more urgent or worthy cause for your consideration.

We welcome three types of bequests – Pecuniary (a specified amount or designated item), Percentage (a predetermined percentage of your total estate) or Residual (the remainder after other gifts have been fulfilled).

If you would like to know more about our organisation or leaving a bequest in your Will, please contact Cath at 0408 931 037 or email cath.mcgregor@pgcnv.org.au for a confidential discussion. On behalf of our clients, we thank you in advance for your foresight and generosity.
